

Figure 1. Percentage of managers excelling at each ADAPTS principle by industry. Excelling means meeting or surpassing the target score, indicating change readiness. Managers must reach the target score to be performing adequately in a given principle.

